San Antonio, Tex , April 4 .- At 11:30 this morning Bishop Johnston of the Episcopal church performed the marriage memony for George A. Castleman of St. Louis and Miss Lucy R. Cable, daughter of the dead president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Ratiway. The wedding occurred at the Caple winter residence in the western suburbs of the city and was private. Immediately after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Castle-man took a private car for St. Louis, where they will reside.

A young lady in Danbury, Conn., ob tained from a gipsy woman a recipe for the cure of warts, which is said to have proved . ffectual whenever it has been ried. She cut pieces of paper in squares and large enough to cover a wart. After wetting them she pasted one of them on each wart. When the pieces of paper had dried she took them in the full of the moon and placed them apon the ground beneath the eaves of a building, where the water could drip upon tnem. After they had been thoroughly wet she placed them in an oven to dry, and finally she placed them in the shape If disagreeable to the taste, it is better of a tri-angle upon her hand, and then thrust her hand out of a third story window and blew them off to the winds. In three days the warts had disappeared.
